

The Numerology Personal Year descriptions recorded here are general rundowns for everyone; therefore, use the interpretation solely as a guide. The broad influences ARE accurate; however, if you want something more specific, something expressly for you, purchase a personal numerology report.

"It is wise to keep in mind that neither success nor failure is ever final."

There are cyclical patterns that influence your movement throughout your life, and once you accept and identify these remarkable occurrences, your year-on-year experiences are more sensible. Bear in mind; there are cycles within cycles, your Personal Year is one of many cycles happening simultaneously in your life.

Awareness of your Numerology PERSONAL YEAR is one technique to stay well-informed, a simple method for success. Your PERSONAL YEAR is like your quick start guide to sum-up the most important characteristics of every year. Understanding your PERSONAL YEAR will aid you in making the best personal and professional decisions that are in sync with your natural cycle.

Naturally, you probably assume that your life rockets forward at the onset of each PERSONAL YEAR, when in fact, the first two months of your new PERSONAL YEAR is a wind up of the previous year. What's more, everyone Will Not feel the new energy of their PERSONAL YEAR in January. That is to say, if you are in a PERSONAL YEAR 4, it is usually June before you begin to feel the immensity of your PERSONAL YEAR. In a nutshell, personal year cycles are different for everyone; this is because a person's temperament and maturity are also factored in.

As a general rule, your day-to-day needs are met in Personal Year 3, Personal Year 6, and Personal Year 9. Personal Year 1, Personal Year 5, Personal Year 7 and Personal Year 9 'shape' your life for years to come.

To calculate your PERSONAL YEAR, add the Calendar Month + Calendar Day of your Birth + Calendar Year.

I.e., Born December 10

12 (Calendar Month for December) + 10 (Calendar Day of Birth) + Calendar Year
12 + 10 + 2021 = 2043 = 2 + 0 + 4 + 3 = PERSONAL YEAR 9

For a shortcut, you can simply add the Universal Year Number to your Calendar Month and Calendar Day of Birth. If you know your Life Number, you can take another shortcut. Add your Life Number to the Age you will be next year, and then reduce the number to a single digit. If you follow the logic that Personal Years start on your birthday, add your Life Number to the Age you are now and reduce the number to a single digit.

Life Number = 1 and Current Age 29. 1 + 29 = 30 = 3 + 0 = PERSONAL YEAR 3

PERSONAL YEAR 1

New Beginnings, Self-Importance, Willpower

It is very important to start out on the right foot this year! The year starts slow; however, the month of March may provide an excellent opportunity to start in a new direction. March could also suggest financial hardship, unemployment, or added responsibilities. As your self-confidence increases, be very careful not to scatter your energy, or be too impulsive or demanding. It is very easy to get sidetracked this year thus, setting off on a path you never intended to go on. Although results this year are slow, this is a fast-paced, an unpredictable year. There's something you have to fight resolutely for, you are tested as to how well you stand up for yourself and not give in. Yet, a balance needs to occur, stand up for yourself but don't be spiteful or too harsh! This year, if it's something or someone you want, you have to engage in competition to attain it – nothing is handed to you this year! There could be very positive financial changes by July. However, be patient; it might take until November before you make progress with any new plans. Be practical all year, even if you feel optimistic! Something unanticipated in October could produce financial hardship or unanticipated money paid out that creates pressures in December. Whatever this is could keep to February of your Personal Year 11/2 so be very careful in the decisions you make. This year, you may decide to move/relocate, change jobs or change your profession. This is the year to activate your project or new initiative. Quite often in late May or in June, a unique partnership or contract comes about. There is a chance that July could produce karma, bad luck. Although, for most people, July produces money, honor, recognition, a contract, financial assistance, new position or job. It is absolutely a year to start something brand new, add something new, or set off in a new direction. Be conservative with your finances in June and July! August through October is significant months. In August you will probably decide to be finished with something or someone, or by design, something ends. Whatever happens, September is a new beginning of sorts. The energies this year are fantastic for a new start. Use good judgment, and read the fine print! This year, patience is a MUST. Because of your heightened sense of self and eagerness for change, there may perhaps be disputes with authority figures - spouse, father, mother, boss, business manager, etc. This year it's all about you, but self-centeredness can cause ruin.

PERSONAL YEAR 11/2

Partnerships, Separation, Feelings

Patience IS a virtue this year! Don't rush things – everything in its own time. This is not the year to make significant changes; it is, however, a year to gather all the information and facts you need for your project, idea. This year there can be surprising split-ups and sudden contracts that come out of the blue. Other people have a great influence on what happens this year so, be open to suggestions, and remain approachable and tactful. You might feel dissatisfied with life and overemotional in May and July, but this will pass. This year other people can help you achieve your goals so be open to a new personal or business partnership and most of all, advice. Romance is a highly favored this year and the new relationship can be meaningful and sustainable. Equally so, because of sensitivity, stubbornness and moodiness, there can be disruptions/separations in love, family or business relationships. This year has a lot to do with your emotional health. There is also an added emphasis on relationships, and partnerships. As early as January or March of this year, you may feel an attraction toward someone. If you don't attract a new love interest, it could be that in January or even March you secure a new contract, job or position. March might be unpredictable and this may put you on edge emotionally; however the changes are needed to ensure you are on the right path. In April your family, health and/or home life will suddenly take center stage. In July, you might rashly choose to end a relationship with someone or suddenly terminate an unsatisfactory employment or living situation. Something in the month of May could take an emotional toll on your health, beware! Life begins to drastically between September and December! With luck, introspection and support from others, the changes are for the better.

PERSONAL YEAR 3

Laidback, Inattention, Spendthrift

This is a year to lighten up, get out and meet people! Love is also in the air! What's more, friends are your biggest asset this year. Keep your social media accounts updated. Your verbal and written communication and mingling with others will help advance your goals this year. Put several social activities on your calendar; people need to know who you are and what you do. This is one of those wonderful and rare years when opportunities seem to fall in your lap! Even so, you can have a tendency to procrastinate, be a bit too self-righteous, or take on more than you should. It behooves you not to take on too many projects at once. Be patient and keep an eye on your business operating and personal expenses. You will likely be a bit disorganized, anxious and unfocused in February. If you have ongoing legal affairs, things could finally wrap up to your advantage in April. Also in April, you might have to make an unexpected doctor's visit, a minor health problem. Come what may, something fortunate lands in your lap in May that helps make your life a bit easier. This could be the job, bonus, lawsuit, lottery winning or loan you applied for. June once again is a month reserved for chucking out the old, someone or something needs to go. In June, there could also be the death of a family member, a friend, or pet, but you are prepared. By July, you will have a better perspective on the direction you should or need to take. Warning, if you haven't kept to a budget all year, in October, you may realize you've burned through a lot of cash. As the year comes to a close, in November, an opportunity, or something or someone could all of a sudden change your situation or life. All things considered, this year beware of compulsions, laziness, and gossiping. Also be careful of sexual obsessions, anxieties, overeating, gambling, alcoholism, and lack of control or overspending! No matter what happens, Personal Year 3 is a lucky and triumphant year! Even so, try not to be too excessive, lazy or unreasonable in your demands and wishes. More importantly, try to keep in mind the easy life is short-term! The comfort and peace of mind that is a result of the Personal Year 3 will peter out early next year.

PERSONAL YEAR 4

Delays, Financial Hardship, Effort

It is a year to buckle down, especially when it comes to spending, work, family obligations and health! Examine your business basics, financial liabilities, business processes and procedures, contracts, staffing needs, insurance papers, career direction. Get ready for long exhaustive hours at work. This year you may even have to take on a part-time job, or do double duty with the kids, grandkids, or double duty at the office. By late January you may require hospitalization or required to take better care of your health. In all likelihood, by March you start to feel exhausted and discontented with the decisions you have made. Be sure to pull back on your schedule in March, get some rest and reflect because in July you have to go all in. In April, family duties, bills, your health, work, auto or home repairs are perhaps stressful. This is a year to put your home life, legal, financial, debts, marriage, and health matters (yours or your kids) in order. This year work will probably be less flexible so, keep things in your life organized. This is a practical year, a year to remain very business-like and focused. In May, you will decide you've had enough of something or someone. All year, pay attention to your emotional and physical health, and any dental problems. July could bring to light something you never anticipated! You can alleviate stress this year by having your finances, household bills, insurance policies, automobile, marriage and legal affairs in ship-shape. In June, your energy level rises, and so does your determination and stubbornness. The weightiness of the year is obvious in June, and you will certainly need more oomph now. Situations, problems that start in June will build up in July and endure through to September. Once again, November is likely a very stressful month. A situation(s) could come to a head or wrap up as early as November, or as late as April of the next year. Be forewarned, in all likelihood, you will encounter the law at some point this year so, be very careful in April, September, October, and December. Keep in mind, confronting the law could also mean you need assistance from police. In a Personal Year 4, many people suffer a home foreclosure, traffic accident, traffic ticket, divorce court, auto repairs, health challenges, burglary, etc. Plan to take a little time for yourself in December, you need it and you have earned it! In December, if you don't take the time to rest and reflect, a strange accident, or unexpected illness may force your hand. For some of you, a move is imminent; use December to figure out when, why and where.

PERSONAL YEAR 5

Adjustments, Relocation, Travel, Impulsiveness

This is a year to be flexible; many situations are beyond your control and surprising. If you desire to move your business or make your home somewhere else in the world, this is the year to do it! For many, a residential move or travel occurs rather unexpectedly or done on impulse. If patient and willing to take a risk, this is a year of favorable change and fortune! The Universe hears your cry for change; it is up to you to make change for the better. Be sure to advertise your product, talent, or, idea on radio, television, social media and various websites. Add or change something this year! In June something will catch you off-guard, but make the best of it. Remember whatever happens this year is shaping your life for years to come. This can be a risky year where your finances are concerned. Beware of impulses and falling into a financial rut. Unfortunately, Personal Year 5 is a year of immoderations therefore, produces drug addicts, gamblers and alcoholics. Events in August can wreak havoc on your lifestyle! Be that as it may, you have some surprising lucky breaks this year especially in January, March and December. Unfortunately, the many unanticipated changes this year can make you very emotional in April; don't let situations shape the rest of your year. Many changes will take place from April through to September. Money and karma go hand in hand this year, in March and June; you are restless and easily distracted. Be vigilant because something unpredictable may perhaps come out the blue, and it could be upsetting or overwhelming. June is also a month involving partnerships; there could perhaps be an unexpected dissolution or a new love interest. December there could be a nice settlement, business opportunity, unexpected money received. There might be an increase of some sort in your wealth or reputation. There could also be an unanticipated karmic life changing event so proceed with caution during the year. If you didn't keep to a budget last year, if you haven't taken care of your health, in December, you may realize you've burned through a lot of cash or your health has slowly worsened. Change is clearly occurring this year; whatever occurs can change your life for the better. By all means travel! Go out – see the world. A lucky break is away from home, take a vacation in another state. Personal Year 5 is intended to be a lighthearted year! Between November of your Personal Year 5 and February of your Personal Year 6 you can expect one or two momentous and unanticipated transformations in your career, your family life, relationship, marriage, health, or your residence.

Duty, Family Burdens, Assistance

Changes from last year that you decided to carry out will take hold in January and/or February. By March you finally settle in to a new place or, new way of life. This year, right through to December, there is much added family responsibility so be willing to do what you have to do. Because of a legal situation, illness, injury, a move, household repairs, or a new home/apartment or mortgage, family matter or other expenditures, your expenses could be abnormally high in February. On the other hand, you keep your eyes open for considerable gains in February, April, May and November. Nevertheless, for the most part, because of spending to satisfy the ego, you might spiral downward by July. If you haven't already, early on, you must determine if your family life and place of residence will continue to support your personal and professional life. If not, what has to change, why, when and how? Consider renovating, moving, putting your home on the market, or purchasing a home. August appears to produce more changes or another chance to move/relocate. Romance, engagements, marriage, health (yours or a family member) is possible this year. By the same token, marital problems, and fights with a sweetheart, babysitting grandkids, and the care of parent/s, grandparents, divorce, and childbirth are also possible this year. Although a demanding year, particularly in May and July, financially, this can be a fantastic year! Even so, you have to thoughtfully direct your efforts in May and July. As well as, this is a great year for finding your true love or simply enjoying time together with your family. More importantly, the emotional and financial support you need is readily available so don't worry. Single or married, love is constantly on your mind. You want to be loved and appreciated by someone. For this reason, married people often have illicit love affairs. Go-slow in January and October; there is something you should reconsider before moving ahead. If you haven't maintained a budget, by November, you may realize you've burned through a lot of cash. Not surprisingly, this is another year in which you need to watch your health. If you overlook symptoms, whatever the illness will demand your attention later this year! It is important to have a balance between when to do for others and when to do for yourself. If you try to take care of everyone and everything this year, your health will suffer. If there are problems with your family, children, relatives, or marriage, try to find a balanced solution. If selling a home, or acquiring a new home or apartment – March, April, May or November are the best months to close the deal. The number 6 represents the household, so this is a year that appliances, pipes, air conditioners, a roof, garage doors can malfunction or fail. It's a year when water seeps into the basement creating a big bill. This is also an inheritance year, so it is customary for a loved one, friend, or pet to breathe their last breath in January, March or December of this year. Also, many married couples divorce, attend family court or marriage counseling. Be careful of jealousy, stubbornness, and over emotionalism; time and again emotions feed the problems. Talk it out, don't act it out!

Sabbatical, Legal Affairs, Fatigue

In all likelihood in February, something from last year is finally finishing off. Many people file for divorce in their Personal Year 7; as a result, there are legal affairs. Get plenty of rest because you'll need a whole heap of energy to push the ball up the hill in your Personal Year 8. This year, lack of sleep makes it difficult to concentrate. This is because soul searching and reevaluating life is a must this year! How is your physical and spiritual health? At this point in your nine-year cycle, you need to be realistic. The next three years are of great consequence! What you do in your Personal Year 7 has a significant influence in the future. Although your Personal Year 9 is a year for getting rid of something or someone, removing something from your plate; Personal Year 7 is the official year to gradually begin closing down your nine-year cycle. By design, the pace of your personal affairs slows down considerably. You will experience hindrances and delays in business, legal and financial matters which for many people, is frustrating. Additionally, off and on throughout the year, your physical energy is lowered somewhat. That's why it is crucial to arrange for periodic idle time! This is a year to work out a better plan of action for the future, take college classes, go to drug/alcohol rehab, attend seminars/lectures, and take a couple mini vacations. An unfavorable situation may require you to rest, to slow down or mend your health, or the health of someone else. What you THINK truly matters this year. Forgotten or ignored legal affairs will turn up in June, September, or October. In particular, federal, state, local taxes, outstanding debts and student loans demand a solution. Personal Year 7 is also representative of enemies, a strange illness or injury, hospitals, incarceration, youth detention centers and intervention programs. For the most part, this is a year when you are frequently exhausted because of lack of sleep, worry and anxiety. Most things you do and situations you involve yourself in will make you dog-tired. Something from last year is still up in the air; it behooves you to remove it from your plate as early as February! January or February could also produce a job loss, financial problems, or death of a loved one, mental illness or chronic ill health. Try to pull back on your schedule in April and especially so in September. In June, work and family responsibilities are probably crushing! Try to understand your anger and frustration; in the fullness of time, it will help you realize what needs to change. This is a year to shift your consciousness! Pay attention to the signals the Universe is intuitively sending about what's in store for your future. You don't want the new nine-year cycle or your new Pinnacle to sneak up on you - use this year to put your life in order. Your nine-year cycle begins to wrap up in November. That's why, it is crucial to give thought to your future this year, what you do is of great consequence in the times ahead. It is important to discover different skills and different ways to achieve the happiness you desire. Find different requirements to satisfy your happiness beyond your job, your money, reputation, house or your possessions. It's also a year for more prayer and connectedness to the Universe, God. Keep a sharp lookout for rebelliousness, feeling misunderstood, depression, or feeling as if someone thinks too little of you. Unfortunately, Personal Year 7 produces drug addicts, psychosis and alcoholics.

PERSONAL YEAR 8

Reckoning, Advancement, Affluence

Is it time to downsize into a smaller home? Personal Year 8 is the year to find a roommate, to relocate, or do away with unnecessary household expenses. Beginning in July and throughout the remainder of the year, improving your living arrangements may perhaps be a major focus and goal. May is a very stressful month, a month in which work, health, bills, and responsibilities are demanding. October is hectic too; emotionally and physically you begin to wrap up something. Be that as it may, you will not be able to tie up all loose ends this year. This is however, a year when you reap what you sow. Your hard work should pay off in September or November. This is a year when you reassess your living arrangements, and your lifestyle, from a budgetary expectation. Show and tell time! Finally, you will know whether or not your project or idea can fly or if it is an iron balloon that will never lift off the ground. Remember the rewards you reap are from plans and goals you implemented in your Personal Year 1, NOT plans and goals you set in action in your Personal Year 5 or Personal Year 7. Plans and goals started in your Personal Year 5 or Personal Year 7 need time to grow. That's why it's best to stick to the method of action you started in your Personal Year 1 and work on the plan from beginning to end. If you needed to make adjustments to your plans/goals, your Personal Year 5 was the best time to do so. Keep to a budget this year, because expenses increase twofold. There's an obstacle or two that you never anticipated, but even so, recognition, honor, promotion, a new job, a home loan, more clients and lucrative contracts are possible this year. Hard work is definitely required! If you are not showing enough care, attention, or rigor, you create difficulties for yourself. There might be a legal dilemma to turn your attention to in August or a business agreement/contract to put your signature on in August or September. March, May, August, September, October, and November can be very unfavorable months – be wise. Don't allow your ego in November to get the best of you! Something out of the blue could surprise you in March and December forcing an unanticipated end to something by late January, or February of your Personal Year 9. Personal Year 8 can be a very karmic year for some people. But, on the whole, for most people, everything they touch this year turns to gold; and so, their situation, wealth and reputation improve.

PERSONAL YEAR 9

Endings, Moving On, Emotionalism

If your project or idea is an iron balloon; get rid of it, or do away with the components and people that have kept things anchored to the ground. Something of someone is finishing off – on account of your own free will, or by the end of the calendar year, your hand is forced. Expect considerable fluctuations and adjustments in January and February. A business or personal partnership may have difficulty, or come to an end this year. In February, something surprisingly comes undone or finishes off. March is an emotional month but by May, there's something or someone that unexpectedly makes your life a whole lot easier. This is a year when tears suddenly flow, and all year long, your emotions are up and down. Bitterness and anger may perhaps also be characteristic of this year. If you haven't kept to a budget, in April, you may realize you burned through a lot of cash. April is typically a stressful month, but you still have to keep your nose to the grindstone. You may also feel more frustrated and tired in April so watch your health and emotions. In May, something is coming to a close or suddenly changing - the change could very well be for the betterment of your life. Be patient! Details and intuition are important this year. If not careful and you let your emotions overwhelm, you could create troubles for yourself or with your health. It's common in May or June of a Personal Year 9 to consider moving. Out of frustration, some people suddenly and unthinkingly put their house up for sale. July or August could materialize a contract that will help you with your new start later in the year, but don't sign up for anything long lasting just yet. Time and time again, early on in the Personal Year 9, folks get impatient, discouraged and push forward. Regrettably anything begun before October falls apart, or whatever was started is frustrating to keep going. Unfortunately, life won't slow down this year, and you'll have to find a practical way to get the job done and stave off the stress and undue emotions. From May – October you'll have to definitely rein in your emotions. July is a very precarious month; tend to your health and finances. In September, a way of living, or someone or something you have grown accustomed to could cease to exist. More importantly, remember Personal Year 9 is a clearing cycle. For this reason, any new projects or employment started from October – December has a better chance of success – wait until then to push forward. DO NOT start implementing new plans before October. Prepare for more sudden and unanticipated changes in November. In December, it's finally time for you to exhale! By mid-December you will likely feel more optimistic than you have in the past three years. Next year, in September of your Personal Year 1 it is finally your official new beginning. Even so, next year is not an easy year either – not at all.

PERSONAL YEAR 11

Seek out, or examine partnership opportunities. Breakaway from someone that no longer aligns with your vision. This is a hectic and unpredictable year so control nervous tension and refrain from getting easily upset. Keep an eye out for someone that might try to take advantage of your kindness or innocence. This is also a year when many come together, therefore, personal or business partnerships are highly possible this year and likely come about suddenly. The intensity of this year is elevated mostly due to increased emotionalism and nervous energy. Also, Read Personal Year 2

PERSONAL YEAR 22

A lot can be accomplished if you remain practical and think broadly. Look for large companies and organizations to promote your project, idea. Lucrative and life altering agreements are possible as well as having to deal with numerous people or large groups of people. There is a great deal of nervous energy during the year. This year, concentrate on getting your affairs in order. Also, Read Personal Year 4
